

German spies are still active in Canada apparently. The German news agencies yesterday announced that if the Hun prisoners of war interned at Amherst, N. S., were not better treated, the Canadian prisoners in Germany would suffer accordingly. Needless to say, the prisoners at Amherst are treated with every consideration. Only in Germany are British gentlemen starved and ill-used in order that the German public may see how contemptible the British are.