

George Marks of Brockville was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for ferrying four Austrians across the River for $20. The Austrians were captured and have been interned.