

Reports of homestead entries in western Canada during May and June show that free Canadian land is still available to immigrants from hostile countries. During May 10 Germans and 208 Austro-Hungarians made homestead entries, and during June 16 Germans and 211 Austro-Hungarians.