

Good progress is being made with the preparation of the internment camp in the Revelstoke park, for the receptions of the interned aliens. Two large log bunkhouses and a large dining hall and cook house are practically completed and drainage and other arrangements are nearly ready. F. Maunder, superintendent of the Revelstoke park, expects that the accommodation for the aliens will be completed by the end of the week. Preparations are also being made for the accommodation of the military guards.