

6,059 INTERNED

Practically All Are Engaged in Clearing Public Lands.

Ottawa, Sept. 2.—Aliens interned in Canada now total 6,059. Of this number about a quarter are Germans and the rest Austrians. There are thirteen stations or camps used as detention quarters, the men in the latter being engaged in clearing operations on improvements to public property. The biggest camp is at Kapukasory, in Northern Ontario, where there are 1,203, while at Spirit Lake, Quebec, internments total 1,095. In each case land is being cleared for experimental farms. There are 948 prisoners at Brandon, 697 at Amherst and 406 at Vernon.
