

SIX MORE GERMANS

Were Interned at Fort Henry On Sunday.

Six more Germans were brought to the city on the 12.57 o'clock train Sunday afternoon and escorted to Fort Henry under a heavily armed guard. The German prisoners were young men and very smart looking chaps. They were gathered in from the eastern provinces where they had been a source of danger to shipping along the coast.