

INTERNED GERMANS TO LEAVE THIS AFTERNOON FOR CAMP AT KINGSTON

Today at four o'clock the four German prisoners held by the local militia authorities leave for the internment camp at Kingston. Captain Johnston, adjutant, a non-commissioned officer and six men will be in charge of them. On the way the Six men will pick up the interned Germans at Sudbury and Toronto, the guard sent down from the city being sufficient to care for the entire lot.