

TO VISIT PETAWAWA CAMP.

Head of Russian Purchasing Commission in the U. S.

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—General Sapajnikoff, head of the Russian Purchasing Commission, in the United States, will visit Petawawa camp next week and preparations are being made for his entertainment, while in Canada. He will arrive tomorrow from New York and will travel to the camp in a private car, which will be provided for him by the Government. General Sapajnikoff will find a number of his countrymen at Petawawa as a battalion of Russians is being raised and trained at that camp.
