

500 FOREIGN PRISONERS

There are now only about 500 German and Austrian reservists detained in Canadian prisons. Over two hundred of these are at Kingston. Some thousands of German and Austrian reservists, who were arrested, have been allowed out on parole. These have undertaken to go about their business peacefully and to make no attempt to leave Canada.