

Banff is to be the centre of a large concentration camp during the coming winter, according to a general rumor in military circles. It is said that the alien enemies who are at present interned in the various western camps at Revelstoke, Brandon, Lethbridge and Cassels are all to be brought to Banff.*