

KAPUSKASING TRAGEDY.

---

Lieutenant Noxon drowned.

---

On Saturday last, Lieutenant Noxon and Lieutenant Wright, of Kapuskasing Internment Camp, were canoeing on Kapuskasing River, and either attempted to run, or were drawn into the rapids, the canoe overturning and Lieutenant Noxon being drowned. Lieutenant Wright reached the shore in an exhausted condition.

Lieutenant Noxon's loss is deeply mourned by his brother officers at the Internment Camp. He was one of the most popular officers in the camp and had many friends in Cochrane as well. His father and mother in Toronto mourn the loss of their only son.
