

Three brawny Hungarians from Omaha, Neb., who had tickets for New York, thence on the steamer Oscar II. to Copenhagen, were taken from an incoming G. T. R. train at the tunnel station at Sarnia by immigration officers, and later sent to Toronto for interment at Stapley barracks.