

IN FORT HENRY.

Paul Pflitzner, a German who had been travelling through Canada with a Belgian by representing himself to be a Swede, and who was caught by the immigration officers in a freight train aboard the car ferry and deported to Prescott as an inadmissible alien last week, was arrested by Canadian officials. He was brought to Kingston and interned with other Germans.