

Some 60 additional men have been added to the internment camp guards during the past week.