

"Spies" Were Not Spies.

Three men, believed to be German spies, were arrested on the C. P. R. train, which arrived from Edmonton yesterday, owing to the information of the train crew that they talked a foreign language. Investigation proved them to be Russians. They were allowed their liberty.