

Nieman Remanded.--David Nieman, who is charged with assisting alien enemies to leave Canada, appeared in the police court yesterday morning, but was remanded. Nieman is being guarded closely by the local police. J. Gleuwick, an employee of the Cockshutt Plow company, was admitted to bail of $2,500 and two sureties. He was also remanded.