

TWELVE GERMANS ESCAPE

Get Out of Internment Camp at Amherst in Night.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Jan. 18.—Twelve German prisoners made their escape from the detention camp at Amherst, N. S. They managed to break their way out and eluded the guards some time during the night. The country is being scoured and a close watch is being kept but so far no trace of them has been found.