

PRISONERS OF WAR REMOVED.

---

Twelve prisoners of war, who have been confined at the armoury, were removed to Toronto today under an escort commanded by Lieut. Chambers. All the belligerent nations were represented in the prisoners taken away today. They, however, did not seem to be feeling their imprisonment much and seemed in good condition.