

Rev. Armin Hoseler, an Austrian, pastor of the Sarnia Baptist Church, who has two sisters in Vienna who are married to Austrian army officers, was brought up before a board of immigration inspectors to answer questions as to his loyalty. He took out naturalization papers in Winnipeg in 1963 and says he wants the allies to win.