

GERMAN OFFICERS AT FORT HENRY MUST STAY WITH OTHER PRISONERS

Kingston, March 4.—German officers at Fort Henry, who happened to be former officers in the German army, have been refused a request for a camp separate from other prisoners. Sir Edward Grey has decided that, under the Hague provisions covering the treatment of prisoners, only those who were full pay officers at the time of capture are entitled to treatment as officers.