

Still a German Subject.

Joseph Smith, a city laborer, who resides at 38 Johnston street, has made application for naturalization papers. Although he has been a resident of Kingston for about thirty-five years he has discovered that he was never naturalized and he is still a German subject.