

JUST A MISUNDERSTANDING.

Who Suggested That Resolutions Be Sent To the Premiers?

"Tempest in a tea pot," declare Recruiting League executive members regarding the premature sending of a resolution to Premiers Borden and Hearst before it had been carried by the league.

Both Messrs. Oliver Hezzlewood, the mover, and George H. Allen, the seconder, deny that they suggested to Col. Galloway that it be sent at once to the Premiers. The motion advocated a form of conscription and the employment of ~~interned~~ aliens on roadways and colonization work.

"The thing was just a misunderstanding," said Mr. Hezzlewood, "and it will be fully discussed at the meeting of the league a week from today."
