

Sergt.-Major Langtry Returning.

Sergt.-Major Lorne A. Langtry of the 15th Battalion, 48th Highlanders-ex-sergeant of the Toronto police force, whose family lives at 538 Ossington avenue, is returning home after 40 weeks in the trenches. Sergeant-Maj. Langtry was one of the first policemen to volunteer. He joined the 78th Nova Scotia Highlanders and attained the rank

Sgt.-Maj. Langtry of sergeant here. At Shornecliffe he was made sergeant-major. He spent the first winter of the war as sergeant instructor at Salisbury Plain and need never have gone to the firing line at all had he not been so eager for a first-hand whack at the Huns. However, he transferred and went to France with the boys of the 15th Battalion.

Sergeant-Major Langtree has never complained, and wrote his wife that the food was excellent. But he suffered from muscular rheumatism and has been in the hospital since the beginning of the present year.

The sergeant-major is 46 years of age. He has a brother, Flight Commander George Langtry, in England.

now, besides three other brothers serving in the English forces.

Mrs. Langtry's three sisters also all have husbands in the service, Sergt.-Major W. J. White with the 18th, now in Flanders; Pte. Foster, at Windsor, and Pte. Robert Kennedy, now at ~~Kapuskasing Camp~~ in Northern Ontario, being too old for overseas duty.
