Capt. D. K. Edgar, R.E.—Prof. Pelham Edgar to Go to Kapuskasing.

At least one former Toronto man is in Gen. Lake's relieving force which was pushing on unavailingly towards Kut-el-Amara, on the Tigris. This is Capt. D. K. Edgar, brother of Prof. Pelham Edgar, and son of the late Hon. J. D. Edgar. Capt. Edgar is in the Field Engineers from India, and has been in the Indian army for about ten years. He received his military training at the Royal Military College, Kingston, and at Chatham, Eng.

Prof. Pelham Edgar is himself taking on military duties. He expects to qualify as a captain shortly and has been assigned to duty at Kapuskasing Internment Camp, where he is to report on May 10.
