

Rich Ruthenian Interned.

Although he proudly told the police he had not worked for two years, and did not intend to work, Fred Kallizuk, a Ruthenian, had $40 in his pockets when arrested. His generous friends were his source of supply. Magistrate Ellis ordered him to pay $5 and costs or go to jail for 30 days for using a decidedly unpleasant expression about His Majesty King George. He is to be interned.