

Alien Workers Cause Trouble.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 14.—Since some interned Germans and Austrians were brought here a few days ago from camps on the National Transcontinental to work in the coal mines at Minto, there has been trouble. It became so serious this week that troops were sent out. Quiet was restored and six leaders of the trouble were arrested and sent to the Amherst internment camp.