

INTERFERED WITH RECRUITING

Austrian Was Fined by Magistrate Elliot in the Police Court Today

An Austrian, boarding at 76 George street, was charged this morning with using seditious language and interfering with recruiting. The proprietor of the boarding house said that he had heard him last night. Defendant said it was on the 29th of June. Defendant owed him a board bill and couldn't get his clothes. He laid a complaint to the police that the proprietor was selling liquor. The proprietor then brought this charge against him to get even. The boys in the boarding house were thinking of enlisting and, it is alleged, the defendant said, "You fools, what do you want to enlist for?" Magistrate Elliott fined him $2.00 and costs, amounting to $5.10 in all.
