

TWO MORE GERMANS ESCAPE FROM FT. HENRY

FIVE HAVE NOW BROKEN OUT OF INTERMENT CAMP—ARE STILL AWAY.

Kingston, Aug. 24.—In broad daylight yesterday afternoon, two German prisoners made their escape from Fort Henry, and military authorities are scouring eastern Ontario for them. How they got away is unknown and will be the subject of an official investigation, but it would appear as if they made their escape under the very nose of guards. All the night trains were watched and the authorities along the border were notified to be on the lookout for the runaways.

Both men can speak good English, and it is believed that they headed for the United States. There are now five German prisoners from Fort Henry at large.

CORP. WALTON FROM BROCKVILLE.

Brockville, Aug. 24.—Corp. Howard B. Walton, one of the Canadian soldiers mentioned for the D. C. M., comes from Brockville, although he enlisted at Montreal with the Canadian Mounted Rifles and went overseas about a year ago. He received a severe wound in the chest early in June, and is still in the hospital under treatment.
