

To Be Interned.

Provincial officers who have been investigating Peter Bjerlich, the Austrian 'arrested' in Walkerville last week on suspicion of having knowledge of the explosion in New York harbor a month ago, stated that it has practically been decided to send Bjerlich to the internment camp at Kingston. It has been found difficult to make out a positive case against the Austrian, but the authorities believe he will be safer at Kingston than at large.