

Mrs. Carl Crossman, accompanied by her three youngest children, have gone to Vernon, where her husband, Lieut. Crossman, is adjutant at the internment camp. The three youngest children accompanied by Miss Stiff, have returned to Victoria, where they will continue their studies.