

PRISONERS ESCAPED

Tunnelled from Internment Camp in Vernon, B.C.

Vernon, B.C., September 7.—Tunneling under their main kitchen and out to the backyard to the house nearest to the wire fence enclosure of their internment camp, a number of prisoners made their escape from imprisonment here Tuesday night. The occupant of the house is now in the provincial jail here awaiting trial for aiding and conniving at the escape of the prisoners.