

Foreigners who had been engaged and who went on strike on Saturday in street construction at Ingersoll, were rounded up and compelled to pay poll tax and costs, $6.90 in all, and then ordered to get out.