

A GERMAN PLATOON.

In connection with recruiting for the 240th battalion Lieut. Baxter, who is in charge of the local recruiting office, asks The Observer to announce that it is hoped to raise a German-Canadian platoon in Pembroke, and all residents of German descent and Canadian birth between the ages of 18 and 45 years will be eligible. There are already quite a number of German-Canadians from this district with the Canadian overseas forces, and it is felt that many more would have enlisted had an invitation been extended to them to come forward. Col. Watt has decided to form a platoon of young men of German descent and now through the local office a call is sent forth to them, to which it is hoped and expected there will be a good response. Full particulars will be given on application to Lieut. Baxter at the armouries.
