

FIRE AT FORT HENRY.

City Department Were Called to Scene, But No Damage.

There was a fire at Fort Henry internment camp at 5.25 p.m. Monday, a blaze breaking out in the bake shop. The fire was caused by wood that was drying out in the oven and behind the stove. The ~~blaze~~ blaze scorched the ceiling before it could be extinguished. Little damage was done, however.

When the fire broke out a call was sent to the city fire department, and the men of No 1 station, in charge of the chief, went over.
