

Clarence Pangburn, admitted dope fiend, sentenced at Windsor for perjury claims there is a constant flow of military and other important information out of Canada, from members of a German organization directed from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and that he participated in the espionage.