

Carl Dosch, who was taken to Lethbridge, by Detective Lobb, on Saturday, March 17, has been sent to the internment camp at Banff. The charges preferred against Dosch were the making of seditious statements in public and of visiting the United States without permission of the authorities.