

Awards $152 Judgment Against Finklestein

In the county court, Friday, Judge Myers awarded a $152 judgment against Sam Finklestein. The award was granted to Frank Ronay who held a note against Finklestein for that amount.

Ronay also sued for $160 wages but his claim was not allowed. Finklestein admitted that he owed Ronay for two months' wages, but claimed he had used the $160 for expenses in getting him released from the internment camp at Brandon. Ronay was interned for a year as an alien enemy. The court took this fact into consideration in giving judgment.
