
AUSTRIAN FINED $100 TODAY FOR REFUSING TO WORK

Pete Buczka appeared in the police court this morning on a charge of refusing to work at the Magpie Mines. The accused is an Austrian and claimed that he did not like the work so he left the "mine" and walked to Hawk Junction and got the train there for the Sault. He owed the Algoma Central Railway Company $10.40 for transportation. Magistrate Elliot imposed a fine of $100 and costs or an alternative of three months in jail.
