Some Members of Commons Committee on Agriculture Strongly in Favor for Farm Labor.

Ottawa, April 20.—The Commons special committee consisting of Committee on Agriculture at its first session yesterday under the presidency of Mr. R. T. Henders, member for Macdonald, Man., had a long discussion in reference to the labor problem.

Messrs. Davis, Argue, McIntosh, Col. Laing, and Col. Mackie, to make a report to the next meeting. This report will constitute the basis of recommendations to be made by the Committee of Agriculture to the Several members expressed the opinion that there were conditions, particularly at the present time, which might make Sunday labor absolutely essential to save crops of grain. Under existing circumstances they thought that the Lord's Day Alliance should not insist on too strict an enforcement of the Lord's Day Act.
