

4 CONVICTED FOR ASSAULT ON AGED MEN

Four enemy aliens were convicted and one acquitted, in police court today, of an assault upon three old men at Pritchard ave., and Aikins st., Thursday of last week. Three of the accused also were convicted of robbing Karian Marchuk, of $410, after luring him into an empty house on Magnus ave.

The three old men, who are Jews, were on their way to synagogue when assaulted. The young men came from behind and lurched against the aged men. During the melee, the old men were thrown to the ground, and one suffered a cut on the head.

The complainants were Sam Levine, 377 Burrows ave., Abraham Sear, 539 Alfred ave., and David Nahmanson, 386 Magnus ave. Sear was the one whose head was cut.

A 30-year old cane, belonging to Nahmanson, and brought from Russia, was broken during the fight.

Joe Wyrozuk, one of the accused, said that he and two of his comrades were supporting a third companion who was drunk and staggered. When they came up to the old men, he said, this man stumbled and seized one of the three beards.

Wyrozuk, when brought to the police station after the fight, was found to have $20 concealed in his mouth.

The other men convicted of the theft are Mike Borka and Frank Morawski. These men and Stephen Dushenko were found guilty of the assault. Frank Petryshym was acquitted. The accused will be sentenced Monday.
