

DOMINION POLICE MAKE 1,200 ARRESTS IN MANITOBA

Between 1,100 and 1,200 arrests have been made here by the Dominion police, according to official figures obtained today. This total includes all Manitoba, but does not take in New Ontario.

"It is impossible to say how many soldiers have been obtained as a result of this crusade," Inspector Lightfoot, head of the police, today asserted. "Any who cannot give a good account of themselves are sent to Minto barracks and it often takes some days before their status is clearly defined."
