

VETERANS SATISFIED IN WINNIPEG NOW

WINNIPEG, Jan. 28.—It is not likely that there will be further rioting by returned soldiers in Winnipeg. The various returned soldiers' associations are arranging to consult together and resolutions are being drawn up expressing the confidence of the soldiers that the objectionable foreigners who have been the object of the soldiers' complaints will now be dealt with by employers and civic authorities, and that many of them will voluntarily take themselves off.

The soldiers will express their approval of the action which the returned men as a body chose to take during the week-end in breaking up Bolsheviki meetings and clubs of enemy nationality, but in the belief that the desired results will now be attained, further violence will be deprecated.

Five men are now under arrest as the result of the rioting. All are civilians, and are considered more in the class of rowdy or petty thief who took advantage of the soldiers' raids to indulge in violence and theft. None of their cases have been settled yet.

Swift's Canadian packing plant early today sent a request to the Great War Veterans for 500 returned soldiers to fill jobs held by aliens, who, they declared, would be discharged as soldiers came to fill their places.

J. H. Ashdown, of the Ashdown Wholesale and Retail Hardware Company, today ordered that all enemy aliens employed in his shops be dismissed.
