

FIXING UP ~~FERNIE~~ MINERS

Nine Hour Pay for Eight Hour Day Settles Part of Dispute.

Fernie, B.C., May 1.—The officials of Fernie Miners' Union have been advised that the dispute over the rate of pay for outside or surface mine labor has been adjusted by granting this class of labor the same pay for working eight hours as was formerly received for nine hours, but that the question regarding those formerly working twelve hours has not been definitely adjusted.
