

Just One Ending

There is just one ending to all the lawlessness in speech and action which is being tolerated—only tolerated—for a brief period, already gone almost beyond the limit.

That ending is defeat and punishment and disgrace for lawless men.

Manitoba and Dominion authority, and Empire authority, yes, even International authority, will not tolerate lawless Russian rule on the decent soil of Canada.

The boastfulness which we hear from a handful of lawless men is from the mouth. These men know in their heart of hearts that the jig is up. They have misjudged Canada and Canadians.

No fungus growth of anarchy can long survive in our wholesome Canadian atmosphere.

Winnipeg and Western Canada have been insulted and defamed by the selection of this city as the centre for the commencement of anarchistic operations.

Striking labor—upon sober reflection—as well as all other labor, farmers and citizens generally, can only assume one attitude towards men who preach rebellion and anarchy. That attitude can only be one of resentment against the plotters who designed to overthrow lawful government and establish a reign of lawlessness and terror.

The shoutings of lawless men cannot be much longer tolerated.
