
AUSTRIAN PRISONER RETURNS.

Let Out on Parole, but Could Not Find Work Anywhere.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Kingsion, Oct. 11. —An Austrian prisoner allowed out from Fort Henry a few weeks ago on parole came back to the fort and asked to be made a prisoner again, stating that he had been all over Canada and could not get work. For this reason he wanted to be held until after the war. He was put in the fort again.

knowledge by the latter, and he was decorated with the Cross of St. George by Alexander II.

Crown Prince in 1889.

The new King, Prince Ferdinand of Hohenzollern, was created Crown Prince in 1889 by letters patent, the succession to the Throne having been refused by other eligible Hohenzollern Princes. Court gossip has it that the new Monarch has never cultivated a liking for the Roumanians and vice versa. His wife, a daughter of the late Duke of Edinburgh, and a direct descendant of Queen Victoria, and, therefore, a niece of the Duke of Connaught, is said to possess tastes that are decidedly British. Critics say she is one of the most beautiful women in Europe. She is also said to be entirely out of sympathy with her subjects. Her extravagance has caused the Roumanian Ministry many troubles. The curtailing of her allowance almost created an international scandal.

Six children have been born to the couple. They are: Carol, the Crown Prince; Elizabeth, Marie, Nicholas, Ileano and Mircea.

The succession to the Throne of Roumania, in the event of the King remaining childless, was settled by the constitution upon his elder brother, Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen. Leopold renounced his
