

FORT WILLIAM HAS 4,000 UNEMPLOYED MEN ON ITS HANDS

Many Drifted There Expecting Employment When Navigation Opened.

(C. P. Special to Sault Daily Star.)

Fort William, May 2.—It is estimated that there are four thousand men unemployed here. A great number drifted here expecting employment when navigation opened, but hitherto the freight sheds and steamers have called for only one thousand.