

Austrians Wanted To go to Fight

Could Not Speak English so Sympathies Were Not Discovered

From a Staff Correspondent.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 14.—Austrian reservists are being warned, as were the Germans, that they must not attempt to join their forces, or they will be detained or arrested. It is not expected there will be much difficulty as far as Austrians are concerned, as the majority of them came to Canada to escape military service. A number of Austrians applied at the recruiting office here yesterday and wanted to enlist. On account of their inability to speak English, it was not clear just which side they wanted to fight. They were naturally rejected.
