

Plot To Smuggle Austrian Reservists Across Border To United States Discovered

Montreal, Que., Aug. 17 Montreal is the centre of a plot to organize the Austrian reservists in Canada and ship them over the United States border at Niagara and thence to Europe. It was discovered by the arrest of Domentl Ollskuik in Hamilton as a result of a message sent him over the wire by the Austrian consul-general. "Hold your men in readiness, but make no move until I notify you further." Reservists were to concentrate in the neighborhood of Windsor and Niagara.
