

Experience Trouble.

It was learned on Monday afternoon that the guards on duty at Fort Henry are experiencing difficulty with the four Germans in confinement. One of the non-commissioned officers was called upon to take the two knives from the men which they had tried to conceal. The knives were given to the men for eating their meals.