

NON-BRITISH TO SHOW LOYALTY

Mayor Deacon in response to numerous requests, has decided to call a mass meeting of the naturalized citizens and citizens of non-British descent, in order to give them an opportunity to express their sentiments of loyalty to the British empire and the cause for which it and its allies are contending. The mayor would like to receive suggestions from these people, Americans, Scandinavians, Ruthenians, Poles, Germans, Syrians, Italians, Russians, Greeks and all other nationalities living in the city as to speakers for the meeting. The speeches, in order to comply with the regulations, will require to be in the English language.
